Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

See Item 4.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

This report relates to, among other things, the formation of Cray Family Management LLC ("Management") and Cray MGP Holdings LP (the "Partnership") and the contribution of Common Stock to the Partnership.

Management was formed on September 25, 2012 and Partnership was formed on October 1, 2012 for estate planning purposes. Karen Seaberg is the sole manager of Management, and Karen Seaberg and her sisters, Cathy Scroggs and Susan Robbins, are the members of Management. Management is the general partner of Partnership. The limited partners of the Partnership and their respective percentage interests in the Partnership as of May 9, 2013 are Cloud L. Cray, Jr. (34%) and the Cloud L. Cray, Jr. Gift Trust (the "Gift Trust") (65%).

On December 16, 2012, Cloud L. Cray Jr. contributed 2,555,967 shares of Common Stock to the Partnership. On December 12, 2012, Karen Seaberg and Susan Robbins contributed 9,000 and 3,010 shares of Common Stock to Management, respectively. Susan Robbins contributed an additional 5,090 shares on December 21, 2012. Cathy Scroggs contributed cash to Management. Management used these contributions to acquire a 1% interest in Partnership on December 30, 2012.

In connection with his contribution, Mr. Cray received a 99% interest in the Partnership. On December 26, 2012, Mr. Cray donated a 65% limited partnership interest in the Partnership to the Gift Trust. Under the terms of the Gift Trust, Mr. Cray may reacquire all or any part of this contribution by substituting property of equivalent value.

Karen Seaberg is trustee of the Gift Trust, whose beneficiaries are the descendants of Cloud L. Cray living from time to time.

The reporting persons have had growing concern with the lack of profitable growth, deterioration in the corporate culture, efforts to sell certain parts of the Company's business, efforts to amend the bylaws that would limit accountability to shareholders and increase the power of the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), and the level of compensation paid to the Chairman of the board of directors and the CEO of the Company. Events transpiring since the original filing of this Schedule 13D have served as a catalyst to cause the reporting persons to become proactive in seeking to (i) change the composition of the board of directors and management, and (ii) influence the board of directors and officers to improve business and financial performance, ensure accountability to shareholders and restore a corporate culture that is positive, is empowering and reinforces the Company's goals. In particular, the reporting persons are seeking (i) the removal of the CEO and requesting his resignation as a director, (ii) the resignation of any other directors from the board of directors who are not supportive of the foregoing goals and related actions described herein, (iii) the approval by stockholders of an amendment to the Company's bylaws to provide for the right of stockholders holding 10% or more of either of the Company's Common Stock or Preferred Stock to call a special meeting, (iv) the approval by the board of directors of an amendment of the Company's articles of incorporation to de-stagger the board of directors and provide for the annual election of all directors and to permit the immediate removal, with or without cause, of any director, and (iv) immediately following the adoption of the amendment to de-stagger the Company's board of directors and permit the immediate removal of any director, to remove any remaining director described in (ii) above.

On May 22, 2013 the reporting persons revoked proxies they had previously given in favor of the matters to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders for 2013 ("2013 Annual Meeting") originally scheduled to be held on May 23, 2013. As a result, there was not a quorum and therefore no business could be conducted at that meeting and it had to be adjourned to a later date.

When the 2013 Annual Meeting reconvenes, the reporting persons currently intend to vote their shares of Preferred Stock, which are described in Item 6, in favor of Cloud L. Cray, Jr. and another Group B nominee they will nominate, and will not vote those shares in favor of John Byom who is the Group B nominee nominated by the Company's board of directors. The reporting persons also currently intend to vote their shares of Common Stock, and to solicit proxies from other holders of Common Stock, to vote in favor of a nominee they will nominate at the 2013 Annual Meeting, and will not vote in favor of John Spiers who is the Group A nominee nominated by the Company's board of directors.

Except as described in this Item 4, the reporting persons presently have no plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any of the effects specified in subparagraphs (a) through (j) in the text of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

The undersigned Laidacker Seaberg may sell a portion of his holdings in the Company's common stock over the course of the next year, depending on market prices, for personal financial management purposes. Such sales may be made pursuant to a 10b5-1 trading plan.

Karen Seaberg and Laidacker M. Seaberg are husband and wife. Cloud L. Cray, Jr. is Karen Seaberg's father. Karen Seaberg is the sole manager of Management and, as such, has sole power to vote and dispose of the shares held by the Partnership.

The terms of the limited partnership agreement of the Partnership give Karen Seaberg the unfettered right and authority to dispose of Common Stock held by the Partnership for so long as she is the sole manager of Management. If either of her sisters should become manager of Management, they may only sell Common Stock to lineal descendants of Cloud L. Cray, Jr. or trusts for the benefit of a descendant or descendants or an entity over which one or more lineal descendants possesses voting control. Should any other person become manager of Management or should the Partnership have more than one general partner, the terms of the partnership agreement require the general partner to offer the Common Stock held by the Partnership to the persons described in the preceding sentence before disposing of it to third parties. Distributions by the Partnership are to be made as determined by its general partner in proportion to the limited partners' respective partnership interests. The Partnership may be dissolved with the consent of the general partner and holders of 80% of the limited partnership interests. Upon dissolution, distribution of Partnership assets would be determined by the general partner or other person designated by law.

Karen Seaberg has a durable power of attorney from Laidacker M. Seaberg empowering her to vote shares owned by him.

Karen Seaberg and Laidacker M. Seaberg are each a trustee of the MGP Ingredients, Inc. Voting Trust (the "Voting Trust"), which was created under a voting trust agreement dated as of November 16, 2005 (the "Voting Trust") and which holds 333 shares of the Company's Preferred Stock, representing 76.2% of the outstanding shares of such class. The other trustee of the Voting Trust is Richard B. Cray (Karen Seaberg's uncle and the brother of Cloud L. Cray, Jr.). Laidacker M. Seaberg directly owns 71 shares of the Company's Preferred Stock. The 404 shares owned by the group represent 92.4% of the outstanding Preferred Stock.

The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company entitle the holders of the Preferred Stock to elect five out of the Company's nine directors. Only the holders of Preferred Stock are entitled to vote upon any proposal which requires stockholder approval and which will authorize or direct the Company to merge with another corporation, consolidate, voluntarily dissolve, sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all of its property and assets, or amend its Articles of Incorporation; provided, that the holders of Common Stock are entitled to vote, as a class, upon any such proposal if the result thereof would be to increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, increase or decrease the par value of the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, or alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock so as to affect the holders of Common Stock adversely. On all other matters, other than the election of directors, the holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock each vote separately, as a class, and no such matter to be acted upon may be approved unless it receives the affirmative vote, consent or approval of the holders of a majority, or such greater percentage as may be required by law, of the shares of Common Stock and the shares of Preferred Stock.

The Voting Trust became effective on January 30, 2006 and was amended effective August 23, 2010. It will continue in effect until the last death of the issue of Cloud L. Cray, Sr. who was living at the creation of the Trust. There presently are 18 such persons living, the youngest of which is 38 years old. The Voting Trust may also be terminated by the consent of a majority of the Trustees or the beneficiaries of 90% of the shares held in the Voting Trust or upon the sale of all the shares held in the Voting Trust. Until the Voting Trust is terminated or dissolved, each Trustee may appoint a successor trustee, provided that any successor must either (i) meet (and continue to meet) the officer and shareholder qualifications that a successor trustee under the Trust must meet under the terms of the First Amendment to the Trust dated November 13, 1980 or (ii) be an issue of Cloud L. Cray, Sr., or the spouse of such issue, and own at least 10,000 share of the Company's Common Stock. (The original trustees of the Voting Trust are not subject to this requirement). Only one person who is solely an issue of Cloud L. Cray, Sr., or the spouse of such issue, (and not also an officer) may serve as successor trustee at one time. The Trustees are permitted to act with respect to the voting or divestment of shares of the Company's stock held by the Voting Trust in accordance with the decision of a majority of the Trustees.
