FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CRAY GROUP RESPONDS TO WIN IN JOHNSON COUNTY, KANSAS

DISTRICT COURT

Atchison, Kansas-October 3, 2013—The Cray Group (which includes Bud Cray, Karen Seaberg, Ladd Seaberg and certain partnerships formed for estate planning purposes) announced today that the Johnson County, Kansas District Court issued an order on October 2, 2013 dismissing all of the claims brought by MGP Ingredients, Inc. (the “Company”) in the litigation it commenced in that court against Cloud L. “Bud” Cray, Karen Seaberg, Ladd Seaberg, Dick Cray (now deceased) and Tom Cray. The court ruled that the Company is not a beneficiary of, and does not have legally protectable interest in, the MGP Ingredients, Inc. Voting Trust (the “Voting Trust”) and therefore does not have standing to challenge any matter relating to the Voting Trust, including the capacity, qualifications or decisions of the trustees of the Voting Trust or the validity of the Second Amendment to the Voting Trust. As a result, the Company’s purported goal of resolving these claims before holding the 2013 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”) has been fulfilled.

The court further held that Tim Newkirk, the Company’s CEO and one of three trustees of the Cray Family Trust, lacked standing to challenge the capacity, qualifications or decisions of the trustees of the Voting Trust or the validity of the Second Amendment to the Voting Trust. The court deferred its ruling on whether Mr. Newkirk may still challenge the validity of the actions taken in 2005 in forming the Voting Trust by the then-trustees of the Cray Family Trust. However, the Cray Family Trust has been terminated by action of the other two trustees, in accordance with Article II, Section 11 of the Trust Agreement under which the Cray Family Trust was formed. As a result, we believe that it is even more clear that Mr. Newkirk cannot challenge the validity of actions taken by the then trustees of the Cray Family Trust in forming the Voting Trust.

We believe Mr. Newkirk, and the Company’s other directors brought this litigation solely for the purpose of entrenchment through delay of the 2013 Annual Meeting and thereby to thwart the will of the stockholders. We call on the Company’s Board of Directors and management to cease their waste of corporate assets in pursuing this meritless litigation and to promptly reconvene the Annual Meeting.

Our campaign will continue until the Company holds the Annual Meeting which stockholders are entitled to have as a matter of law. We plan to continue to pursue all of our available legal remedies to seek a prompt reconvening of the Annual Meeting and allow stockholders to exercise their voting rights.
