Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

See Item 4.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

This report relates to, among other things, the formation of Cray Family Management LLC (“Management”) and Cray MGP Holdings LP (the “Partnership”) and the contribution of Common Stock to the Partnership.

Management was formed on September 25, 2012 and Partnership was formed on October 1, 2012 for estate planning purposes. Karen Seaberg is the sole manager of Management, and Karen Seaberg and her sisters, Cathy Scroggs and Susan Robbins, are the members of Management. Management is the general partner of Partnership. The limited partners of the Partnership and their respective percentage interests in the Partnership as of May 9, 2013 are Cloud L. Cray, Jr. (34%) and the Cloud L. Cray, Jr. Gift Trust (the “Gift Trust”) (65%).

On December 16, 2012, Cloud L. Cray Jr. contributed 2,555,967 shares of Common Stock to the Partnership. On December 12, 2012, Karen Seaberg and Susan

Robbins contributed 9,000 and 3,010 shares of Common Stock to Management, respectively. Susan Robbins contributed an additional 5,090 shares on December 21, 2012. Cathy Scroggs contributed cash to Management. Management used these contributions to acquire a 1% interest in Partnership on December 30, 2012.

In connection with his contribution, Mr. Cray received a 99% interest in the Partnership. On December 26, 2012, Mr. Cray donated a 65% limited partnership interest in the Partnership to the Gift Trust. Under the terms of the Gift Trust, Mr. Cray may reacquire all or any part of this contribution by substituting property of equivalent value.

Karen Seaberg is trustee of the Gift Trust, whose beneficiaries are the descendants of Cloud L. Cray living from time to time.

The reporting persons have had growing concern with the lack of profitable growth, deterioration in the corporate culture, efforts to sell certain parts of the Company's business, efforts to amend the bylaws that would limit accountability to shareholders and increase the power of the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), and the level of compensation paid to the Chairman of the board of directors and the CEO of the Company. Events transpiring since the original filing of this Schedule 13D have served as a catalyst to cause the reporting persons to become proactive in seeking to (i) change the composition of the board of directors and management, and (ii) influence the board of directors and officers to improve business and financial performance, ensure accountability to shareholders and restore a corporate culture that is positive, is empowering and reinforces the Company's goals. In particular, the reporting persons are seeking (i) the removal of the CEO and requesting his resignation as a director, (ii) the resignation of any other directors from the board of directors who are not supportive of the foregoing goals and related actions described herein, (iii) the approval by stockholders of an amendment to the Company's bylaws to provide for the right of stockholders holding 10% or more of either of the Company's Common Stock or Preferred Stock to call a special meeting, (iv) the approval by the board of directors of an amendment of the Company's articles of incorporation to de-stagger the board of directors and provide for the annual election of all directors and to permit the immediate removal, with or without cause, of any director, (iv) immediately following the adoption of the amendment to de-stagger the Company's board of directors and permit the immediate removal of any director, to remove any remaining director described in (ii) above; (v) the approval by stockholders of an amendment to the Company's bylaws to provide for confidential voting at stockholder meetings; (vi) the approval by stockholders of an amendment to the Company's bylaws to require that any vacancies on the Company's board of directors be filled only by stockholders and not by the board; and (vii) the repeal of any provision of or amendments to the Company's bylaws adopted by the board of directors without the approval of stockholders after April 3, 2013 and before the date of the 2013 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting").

On May 22, 2013 the reporting persons revoked proxies they had previously given in favor of the matters to be voted at the Annual Meeting originally scheduled to be held on May 23, 2013. As a result, there was not a quorum and therefore no business could be conducted at that meeting and it had to be adjourned to a later date.

Following the filing of the original Schedule 13D by the reporting persons on May 22, 2013 and withdrawal of proxies voting in favor of the proposals by the board of directors, the Company on May 29 announced that the board of directors had authorized a review of strategic alternatives. The Company announced that a special committee of the board of directors had been formed, and that the committee had retained BMO Capital Markets Corp. as its financial advisor. Such statements are usually interpreted to mean that the entire company or major parts of it are being readied for sale.

The reporting persons have communicated to the board of directors their support for the Company's current corporate strategy, even as they have communicated their concerns about the CEO's ability to execute that strategy. The board of directors most recently endorsed the current corporate strategy at a board meeting on May 23, 2013, which includes the retention of each of the Company's divisions. The reporting persons, by virtue of their control of the Preferred Stock of the Company, have the right to approve any merger, consolidation, sale, lease or exchange of substantially all of the assets of the Company, dissolution, or amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation. The reporting persons do not believe this is the right time or circumstances to propose a transaction involving a sale of the Company, however structured, and do not intend, in their capacity as stockholders, to approve any such transaction. Further, the reporting persons' support for the Company's current corporate strategy entails supporting the retention, in the present circumstances, of each of the Company's divisions. The reporting persons believe the two divisions together help assure stable cash flow and risk diversification for the Company. Accordingly, the reporting persons do not believe that the Company or any significant portion of it, including any division, should be shopped by management, the special committee or the board of directors. In light of the board's unanimous support for the Company's current corporate strategy, which includes the retention of each of the Company's divisions, and in light of the reporting persons' expressed opposition as preferred stockholders to any transaction at this time involving a sale of the Company or substantially all of its assets, however structured, there is no basis for the board's continued examination of strategic alternatives for the Company. The reporting persons believe that any continued sale process is a waste of the Company's corporate assets, and that a continued waste of assets in these circumstances may constitute a breach of fiduciary duties by those responsible. The reporting persons urge the termination of the review of strategic alternatives and the cessation of this corporate waste.

When the Annual Meeting reconvenes, as described below, the reporting persons currently intend to vote their shares of Preferred Stock, which are described in Item 6, in favor of Cloud L. Cray, Jr. and M. Jeannine Strandjord, and will not vote those shares in favor of John Byom who is the Group B nominee nominated by the Company's board of directors. The reporting persons also currently intend to vote their shares of Common Stock, and to solicit proxies from other holders of Common Stock, to vote in favor of John P. Bridendall and will not vote in favor of John Speirs who is the Group A nominee nominated by the Company's board of directors.

On June 18, 2013, the Company announced that it anticipates further delay in the reconvening of the Annual Meeting. The Company attributed this delay to its purported "need to determine whether actions taken by the Voting Trust with respect to the Annual Meeting held on May 23, 2013, and the ability of a majority of the Preferred Stock to take action at any reconvened Annual Meeting, are valid and properly authorized under the terms of the Voting Trust and applicable law." The Company has initiated litigation against, among others, Karen Seaberg and Laidacker Seaberg, alleging uncertainty as to whether certain actions they have taken in connection with the Annual Meeting were authorized by the terms of the MGP Ingredients Inc. Voting Trust (the "Voting Trust"). The Johnson County, Kansas District Court issued an order on October 2, 2013 dismissing all of the claims brought by the Company. The court ruled that the Company is not a beneficiary of, and does not have legally protectable interest in, the Voting Trust and therefore does not have standing to challenge any matter relating to the Voting Trust, including the capacity, qualifications or decisions of the Trustees of the Voting Trust or the validity of the Second Amendment to the Voting Trust. The court deferred its ruling on whether Tim Newkirk, the Company's CEO and one of three Trustees of the Cray Family Trust, has standing to challenge whether the actions taken in 2005 in forming the Voting Trust by the then trustees of the Cray Family Trust were valid.

However, on September 26, 2013, a majority of the Trustees of the Cray Family Trust took action to terminate the Cray Family Trust and to distribute its assets upon termination to the three beneficial owners, The Foundation of the Atchison Family of YMCA (the "YMCA"), the University of Kansas Endowment Association ("KU") and Cloud L. Cray, Jr. In connection with the termination of the Cray Family Trust, on September 23, 2013, Karen Seaberg entered into an option to purchase the Voting Trust Certificates distributed to the YMCA and exercised the option on October 16, 2013.

On October 17, 2013, the Trustees of the Voting Trust (Karen Seaberg, Cloud L. Cray, Jr. and Thomas M. Cray) took action to terminate the Voting Trust and distribute the 333 shares of the Company's Preferred Stock formerly held by it to holders of the Voting Trust Certificates. Thomas M. Cray is seeking to obtain an option to purchase KU's 111 shares of the Company's Preferred Stock.

On July 11, 2013, the reporting persons initiated legal action pursuant to Section 17-6501 of the Kansas General Corporation Code to obtain a prompt reconvening of the Annual Meeting. Pursuant to this action, on July 26, 2013, the District Court of Atchison County, Kansas granted an order requiring the Company to hold the Annual Meeting on or before August 26, 2013. The Company scheduled and issued notice that the Annual Meeting was to be held on August 23, 2013 but filed a motion to stay the order with the Kansas Court of Appeals. On August 22, 2013, the day before the Annual Meeting was scheduled to be held, the Kansas Court of Appeals granted a stay of the Annual Meeting pending further review. The Kansas Court of Appeals lifted the stay on October 16, 2013, effective October 22, 2013. As of the filing of this Amendment, the Company has not set a date to reconvene the Annual Meeting.

The Cray Group remains committed to its goals in this proxy contest and continues to negotiate in good faith towards an amicable settlement in connection with the Annual Meeting proposals set forth by the Cray Group.

Except as described in this Item 4, the reporting persons presently have no plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any of the effects specified in subparagraphs (a) through (j) in the text of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

The undersigned Laidacker Seaberg may sell a portion of his holdings in the Company's common stock over the course of the next year, depending on market prices, for personal financial management purposes. Such sales may be made pursuant to a 10b5-1 trading plan.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Item 6 is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Karen Seaberg and Laidacker M. Seaberg are husband and wife. Cloud L. Cray, Jr. is Karen Seaberg's father. Karen Seaberg is the sole manager of Management and, as such, has sole power to vote and dispose of the shares held by the Partnership. Thomas M. Cray is Karen Seaberg's cousin and the nephew of Cloud L. Cray, Jr.

The terms of the limited partnership agreement of the Partnership give Karen Seaberg the unfettered right and authority to dispose of Common Stock held by the Partnership for so long as she is the sole manager of Management. If either of her sisters should become manager of Management, they may only sell Common Stock to lineal descendants of Cloud L. Cray, Jr. or trusts for the benefit of a descendant or descendants or an entity over which one or more lineal descendants possesses voting control. Should any other person become manager of Management or should the Partnership have more than one general partner, the terms of the partnership agreement require the general partner to offer the Common Stock held by the Partnership to the persons described in the preceding sentence before disposing of it to third parties. Distributions by the Partnership are to be made as determined by its general partner in proportion to the limited partners' respective partnership interests. The Partnership may be dissolved with the consent of the general partner and holders of 80% of the limited partnership interests. Upon dissolution, distribution of Partnership assets would be determined by the general partner or other person designated by law.

Karen Seaberg has a durable power of attorney from Laidacker M. Seaberg empowering her to vote shares owned by him.

Following the termination of the Family Trust and the Voting Trust, the 333 shares of the Company's Preferred Stock, formerly held in Voting Trust Certificates and distributed to the YMCA, KU and Karen Seaberg, were distributed KU and Karen Seaberg (pursuant to her exercise of the option for YMCA's 111 shares on October 16 2013 and the exercise by Cloud L. Cray, Jr. of a general power of appointment). KU now holds 111 shares. Thomas M. Cray is seeking an option to purchase all 111 shares of KU's Preferred Stock. Karen Seaberg now holds 222 shares of the Company's Preferred Stock. Laidacker M. Seaberg directly owns 71 shares of the Company's Preferred Stock.

The 273 shares currently beneficially owned by the reporting persons represent approximately 67% of the outstanding Preferred Stock.

The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company entitle the holders of the Preferred Stock to elect five out of the Company's nine directors. Only the holders of Preferred Stock are entitled to vote upon any proposal which requires stockholder approval and which will authorize or direct the Company to merge with another corporation, consolidate, voluntarily dissolve, sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all of its property and assets, or amend its Articles of Incorporation; provided, that the holders of Common Stock are entitled to vote, as a class, upon any such proposal if the result thereof would be to increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, increase or decrease the par value of the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, or alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock so as to affect the holders of Common Stock adversely. On all other matters, other than the election of directors, the holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock each vote separately, as a class, and no such matter to be acted upon may be approved unless it receives the affirmative vote, consent or approval of the holders of a majority, or such greater percentage as may be required by law, of the shares of Common Stock and the shares of Preferred Stock.
